A Call to Action, Unity & the Establishment of God's Presence on Earth

The Fall Feasts: Prophetic Shadows of Things to Come

(for additional context, these 3 points taken from Voice of JudahIsrael website)

1. Rosh Hashanah (Feast of Trumpets): The Awakening Call, this two-day feast begins with the blowing of the shofar (ram's horn), calling people to repentance. For many believers, this trumpet call echoes the future "trumpet of God" that will announce Messiah's return (1 Thessalonians 4:16-17).
2. Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement): Complete Reconciliation, the holiest day on the Jewish calendar, Yom Kippur, focuses on atonement and forgiveness. The elaborate Temple ritual involved the high priest entering the Holy of Holies with blood to make atonement for the people. Hebrews 9-10 explains how Yeshua, as our High Priest, entered the heavenly Holy of Holies "once for all" with His own blood, securing eternal redemption. Many believe Yom Kippur also points to the future day when "all Israel will be saved" (Romans 11:26) and recognize Yeshua as their Messiah.
3. Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles): God Dwelling With Us, this joyous seven-day celebration commemorates God's provision during Israel's wilderness journey, when the people lived in temporary shelters (sukkot). Prophetically, it points to the Messianic Kingdom when God will again "tabernacle" with His people. During His ministry, Yeshua used the water-pouring ceremony of Sukkot to declare, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink" (John 7:37-38), identifying Himself as the source of living water.

October 2025, the beginning of the last quarter in 2025 is also a week and a half into the beginning of the new Hebrew year 5786. Prior to the start of every Hebrew new year (during the month of Elul) the Jewish people blow the shofar every day, announcing and pointing to the presence of "the king in the fields" visiting with His people, inviting them to turn to Him and to turn with Him to His throne for the celebration of the "head" of the year, Rosh Hashanah (which occurred September 23rd).

Beginning with the month of Tishri, the Jewish new year (the head of the year) is commonly understood to hold a prophetic interpretation, emphasizing a call to action, unity, and the establishment of God's presence on Earth, often seen as the connection between heaven and earth. It is also viewed as a time of overcoming spiritual opposition and strengthening of one's connection to God through repentance and dwelling in His presence.

The prophet Hosea, in chapter 3, says: “ For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim. Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek YHWH their God and David their king. They shall fear YHWH and His goodness in the latter days.”

And so, we celebrate both the coming and the return of the king, King Yeshua, who will live and reign, joining with the faithful, establishing His influence in every arena of creation, awakening all to His sovereignty and the restoration of all things. October 1st is Yom Kippur, that day of atonement, of turning where Yeshua makes possible for everyone and all things to become new.

Thus, our prayer must take their cue in the words of Isaiah, chapter 54:

“Sing, O barren,
You who have not borne!
Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate
Than the children of the married woman,” says the Lord.
“Enlarge the place of your tent,
And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;
Do not spare;
Lengthen your cords,
And strengthen your stakes.
For you shall expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will inherit the nations,
And make the desolate cities inhabited.

The Awakening

Psalm 57:7-9

The Greater Cincinnati Area, though thriving by the world’s standards, has not caught fire in awakening and revival. It has been barren, as it has failed to give birth to the prophetic utterances spoken over it since early in its history.

Now, in this season, we call intercessors to bring declaration before the Father in the name of Yeshua and by the power of the Holy Spirit for a worship and praise to usher in a breakthrough inheritance for the Jewish people and the nations, taking the land and filling the cities with the righteous. Call for the awakening!

Tear Down the High Altars

Judges 6:25-26

We call the intercessors to identify, as did Gideon, the altars of idolatry in the city...altars in government, law enforcement, the courts, business, science and health care, entertainment, sports, education, religious and charitable institutions and technology (and anything else Holy Spirit highlights).

Declare confusion and desperation into those that worship at these altars, making the altars useless, unfulfilling and unprofitable. This is to be a time of radical cleansing, driving all to seek the Lord and throw themselves onto the altar of the One true God by His son Yeshua.

Raise up the Foundations

Isaiah 58:11-14; Jeremiah 23:4-5; Ephesians 2:4-7

Those who come afresh, for the first time and again in this time, will join together much as those in Nehemiah's day when they took up their position, restoring the places of the Lord, standing firm against every adversary, and putting up a wall against every strategy of the enemy to invade and do harm.

Intercessors, call the righteous to their appointed places in this city and region and declare over them the anointing to come against the "gates of hell". His enemies will be scattered, fleeing back to the pit from which they have come.

Take up for Those Most Vulnerable

Joel 3:1-3; Matthew 25:31-44

Intercessors, call into the darkened rooms, city streets, warehouses, shipping containers, mountain and valley enclaves for the "little ones" who are being threatened, assaulted, abused and taken into slavery. They are hungry, naked, sick and imprisoned. Expose every location these precious souls are being victimized. Expose every perpetrator, every system (governmental, business, educational or religious) who are using these precious souls for commercial purposes

Isaiah 61; Hosea 13:14; 1 Corinthians 15:54-57

Intercessors, call the "little ones" back for restoration into the dream and vision our Heavenly Father has for each one of them, each one of us. Call them into gladness, instead of mourning. Call them into dancing instead of wasting in the pit of despair. Call them as unto oaks of righteousness.

The Set Time – Moed is Hebrew for YHWH's time and timing

Isaiah 13:2-5; Joel 2:1-2

Blow the trumpet in Zion,
And sound an alarm in My holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
For the day of the Lord is coming,
For it is at hand:
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains.
A people come, great and strong,
The like of whom has never been;
Nor will there ever be any such after them,
Even for many successive generations.

Rise up, Intercessors! It is His time! We go to war!

Lord God Almighty, we ask your blessing on every ministry that is increasing your kingdom for your glory in our region. May they receive supernatural, unexplainable strategies, discernment and wisdom that result in expansion, effectiveness and kingdom influence greater than anything they could imagine! We ask for your intercession and favor for the following ministries and we bless each one in the name of Jesus!
